In all cases we will hold your personal information securely within our secure digital software, managed by an independent IT company.

Who will your information be shared with?

We will provide it to others only where it is required and as outlined below, or in accordance with your stipulated wishes.

Specifically, we will hold and use your information in the following manner:-

Identification Details – We may hold copies of your photographic identity documents and at least one document that confirms your home address. This is required to protect our position and look after your interests. It assists us to ensure we are dealing with the owners of the property and we are not becoming involved in any money laundering situation and complies with money laundering regulations. This will never be passed to third parties unless required for a criminal investigation.

Prospective Tenants – No personal information relating to the landlord will be passed to any potential applicant. Basic information about your property will be provided to anyone who makes an enquiry about potentially viewing or letting your property. This information will include the property details we produced and any information you provide to us in a property information questionnaire.

Viewings – We will organise viewings on your behalf, to suit you, the viewer and any tenant who may be residing at the property. Where we are conducting the viewing for you, it is important that you (or any tenant) check the property prior to the viewing to ensure that any personal information you would not wish a viewer to see is removed. We do not pass any personal information relating to the landlord to anyone viewing a property.

Tenancy Application Forms – This information is required in order for the landlord to make an informed decision on the outcome of the application. We do not pass your contact details to the landlord. The landlord is advised that they must treat your information with confidence, store it securely and not use it for any other purpose other than the tenancy. They are reminded to delete it when it is no longer required.

Tenancy Applicants – We will deal with applicants to ensure we provide you with appropriate information to decide on the acceptability of the applicant. This will involve providing you with relevant and necessary personal information about the applicant. The applicants are fully informed about what information is provided to you. You must ensure that you treat any information we provide to you as confidential and it must not be passed on or shared with any other person or business or used for any purpose other than the tenancy. Additionally, you must delete it when it is no longer required.

Negotiating with prospective tenants – We may negotiate with prospective tenants. This process will involve providing potential tenants with relevant information to facilitate a successful negotiation and allow them to make an informed decision, only where the landlord is happy for us to do so. No information will be passed which may prejudice the negotiation process.

Tenancy Agreements and other related documents – Once a tenancy is agreed we will provide a copy of the tenancy agreement and any other related documents to our client, the landlord. This is required for the purposes of the contract.

Tenants – Once a tenancy is agreed we will provide the tenant with your personal contact information if you have entered into a let only contract as there is a legal requirement to do this. If you are entering into a managed let, we will provide only your name to the tenant.

Welsh Water, Utility Suppliers and Council Tax – The tenant is hereby notified that their details will be shared with Welsh Water in accordance with current legislation. We will provide your details to the appropriate utility suppliers, as and when it is required in order to ensure correct billing from the suppliers. This is in the legitimate interest of both landlord and tenant.

Contractors / Sub-Contractors – We may sub-contract out some of the services we provide to you under this agreement such as erection of TO LET boards, inventory services and property inspections during tenancies. We may use sub-contractors to carry out maintenance or repair work on the property. We hold a list of preferred contractors who we use to provide services at the property we are marketing and/or managing. If you report an issue with the property, your name, address and contact details will be passed to an appropriate approved contractor. All our approved contractors have signed an agreement in relation to the lawful processing of your information. If the landlord wishes to use their own contractor with whom we do not have an agreement with, we will undertake a telephone questionnaire with the contractor before any personal information is passed, in order to ensure that they treat your personal information appropriately and lawfully. We may obtain estimates / quotes for work from our preferred contractors and we will instruct them to carry out work on your behalf. To do this we will provide the appropriate personal information they need to provide the required services such as Tenant contact details for the purposes of arranging access. All our contractors are party to a Data Processing Agreement which ensures compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

How long will we keep your information for?

If you enter into a contract with us, we will retain the personal information we hold shall be kept for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is being processed.

If you do not enter into a contract with us, your information will be deleted after six months. We will keep your email address on any of our mailing lists, should you request this.

In all cases we will hold your personal information securely within our secure software, managed by an independent IT company.

Who will your information be shared with?

We will provide it to others only where it is required and as outlined below, or in accordance with your stipulated wishes.

Specifically, we will hold and use your information in the following manner -
